April 9, 1940.

A. L. Manley, President
Newark Eagles Baseball Club,
101 Montgomery Street,
Newark, New Jersey.

Dear Mr. Manley:

I appreciate very greatly your kind invitation to attend the opening game of the Negro National League Baseball on Sunday, May 5th, 1940 at Ruppert Stadium, Newark, when your team will be playing host to the New York Black Yankees, and should be delighted if you would sent me eight tickets.

I know you will not mind accepting the enclosed. I just do not want to impose upon you to this extent.

With every good wish to you and your team in the coming season, believe me,

Gratefully yours,

W. Stanley Naughtright
